

SUMMER SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

Our Youth Engagement Coordinator, Phylcia Cook, has compiled the following list of summer scholarships. Be sure to check with the camp or travel program itself as many programs, including Ramah and Young Judea, offer scholarships as well.

HPCT-CAE JEWISH CAMP SCHOLARSHIPS

A Jewish summer camp experience can be life-changing! HPCT-CAE helps its members' children enjoy a summer camp experience by offering non-needs-based scholarships.

Applications for summer 2023 need to be submitted to the Temple office (attention Linda Tondow) by April 3, 2023. The application can be found online and in the Temple lobby.

HPCT-CAE MINTZ FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP FOR POST-HIGH SCHOOL STUDY IN ISRAEL

Thanks to the generosity of the Mintz family, scholarships are also available for post-high school study in Israel. Applications should be submitted to the Temple office by April 3, 2023. The application can be found online and in the Temple lobby.

CHAI MITZVAH $1000 ISRAEL SCHOLARSHIP

Teens participating in the HPCT-CAE Shabbat Lunch and Learn program (Teen Aseret and/or Teen Musar) are eligible to receive $1,000 towards a non-school, summer program in Israel that includes at least three (3) shabbats. Students whose trip is subsidized by Root One are eligible to receive $500.

To qualify: Your teen must attend at least seven teen Lunch and Learns throughout the school year. For more information or to receive an application, email our youth engagement coordinator, Phylcia Cook.

USY SUMMER SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

USY provides Jewish teens with transformative travel experiences, opening their eyes to new places, different ways of life, and some of the world's most spectacular sights. Scholarships are available.

ROOTONE

RootOne helps thousands of Jewish teens travel to Israel each through an ambitious initiative, seeded by a generous gift from The Marcus Foundation and powered by The Jewish Education Project.

To receive a $3,000 RootOne voucher, a student must be a current 9th, 10th or 11th grader and NOT be attending an Orthodox Jewish Day School. The student must be planning to attend one of the programs many partners; those programs can be found on the RoutOne website and include Camp Ramah and Young Judea. The $3,000 scholarship is sent directly to the summer program.

There is no deadline to apply; once the 7,000 available scholarships are distributed applicants will be placed on a waiting list.

ONE HAPPY CAMPER

The Federation in the Heart of NJ provides scholarships of up to $1,000 for first-time campers to more than 155 Jewish overnight camps.
