

HIGHLAND PARK
CONSERVATIVE TEMPLE
Congregation Anshe Emeth

Please join us for the

Marlene Pomper z"l Memorial Lecture

with

Adam Kirsch

Sunday, June 11th

10:15 AM - Light Breakfast

10:45 AM - Talk Starts

At Home in Exile: Jewish-American Writers in the 20th Century

For most of history, Jews thought of themselves as being in exile, awaiting a return to the land of Israel. But in 20th-century America, they found a country welcoming enough to feel like home. The result was a literary golden age, in which writers from Abraham Cahan to Tony Kushner offered new definitions of Jewish identity.

◆ All Are Welcome

◆ No Cost

Adam Kirsch is a poet and literary critic whose books include "The Blessing and the Curse: The Jewish People and Their Books in the 20th Century." He is an editor at the Wall Street Journal's weekend Review section.