

Unearthing Your Own Family Tree

A hands-on genealogy workshop with Ambassador Meryl Frank (Ret.)

Sunday, February 4

9:30 AM

HPCT-CAE * 201 S. 3rd Ave.* Highland Park

Grab your laptop and join us for this in-person workshop

UNEARTHED is the story of Ambassador Frank's search for her cousin Franya through archives across four continents, by way of chance encounters and miraculous discoveries. Frank will share some of the tips and resources she used to complete her book, allowing you to explore your own family's heritage.

Frank is a graduate of Rutgers University and Yale University where she earned graduate degrees in International Relations, Political Science and Public Health. She served as Mayor of Highland Park, New Jersey from January 2000 to January 2010.

Frank was appointed as the United States Representative, and subsequently, as the United States Ambassador to the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women (CSW) by President Barack Obama in February 2009. Frank has served in the leadership of many national and international organization's governing boards, including the US Holocaust Memorial Council and the Board of YIVO. She was selected as one of "The Fifty Most Influential Jews in the World" by the Jerusalem Post (2012) for her work on behalf of women around the world.

REGISTER EARLY!

Registrants will receive a worksheet to help them make the most of their time in the workshop.

<https://www.hpct-cae.org/genealogy-workshop/>

201 South Third Avenue * Highland Park, NJ * 732-545-6482