Hazzan Michael & Lisa Weis

When you came to Highland Park
You were at Cantorial School
You and Lisa were a pair
And we thought, "That's cool!"

It wasn't long before you married
In a shul out on Long Isle
And we were blessed to have you both
For a long, long while!

Mike and Lisa! Mike and Lisa!
We've come to honor you!
And we thank you, for the melodies
And for all the things you do!

Thank you for your weekly journeys
To your home in Highland Park
At the HP Conservative-Temple-Anshe-Emeth
Where you both have left your mark!

Well you came in 2007
And left in 2012
That was really lousy
But we wished you well.

You went to New York City
To the Shul of Brotherhood
But you longed to come right back here,
And we knew you would!

Mike and Lisa! Mike and Lisa!
We've come to honor you!
And we thank you, for the melodies
And for all the things you do!

Thank you for your weekly journeys

Now it's seventeen years later
March of '24
We've been through a pandemic
And now we're in a war.

Your davening gives us comfort
Your friendship gives us light
And that's why we've spent all this money
To be here tonight!

Mike and Lisa! Mike and Lisa!
We've come to honor you!
And we thank you, for the melodies
And for all the things you do!

Thank you for your weekly journeys
To your home in Highland Park

The Gala Song Tribute - con't

Now there's one more thing to tell you
At this festive restive time
And one more loving stanza
And perhaps a rhyme.

May God bless you and your family
May God shower you with health
May God shine his light upon you
And give you lots of wealth!

Hazzan Michael & Lisa Weis

Congratulations to Hazzan Mike and Lisa Weis for being the 2024 Highland Park Conservative Temple-Congregation Anshe Emeth Gala honorees for their many years of exemplary service to the temple and the Jewish community.

Hazzan Weis has worked tirelessly to make Jewish music accessible to all, from HPCT-CAE and the Brotherhood Synagogue to the Abuyudaya Jews of Uganda. Throughout his career, Hazzan Weis has used the power of sacred music to promote understanding and genuine acceptance among people of different faiths. He is the recipient of the 2022 Yehudah Mandel Humanitarian Award from the Cantors Assembly.

Lisa Weis is a dedicated educator for NYC Department of Education, serving with distinction in varied teaching and administrative roles throughout her career. They are devoted to their children, extended families, friends, and community.

We are so proud of you (as are Byron, Natalie, and Rachel) on your well-deserved honor.

Mazel Tov Hazzan Mike and Lisa,

Mike, our Shabbat and holiday services are heightened by your passion, spirituality and heartfelt melodies. In partnership with Rabbi Malomet, you taught us how us to manage our first Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur during covid without our family and friends, for which we are most appreciative.

Lisa, you have stepped up in a meaningful way by your contributions to programming that enhance outreach to young children and parents as well as others in our shul and the community. Your grace and warmth are welcoming to all.

Mike and Lisa, together with Jayna, Shai and Michelle, you both set an admirable example of a beautiful Jewish family life.

We are grateful for your friendship. May you and yours and our congregation go from strength to strength.

With affection,

To our HPCT-CAE family

We are deeply grateful to the entire community and honored to be the recipients of this year's Chaver Award.

We appreciate all the efforts of so many people who have worked hard to make this evening a reality:

*Rabbi Eliot Malomet
The Officers and Board of HPCT-CAE
The Dinner Dance and Ad Journal Committees
Linda Tondow, Beth Spurr, Diane Kurucz
Nelly Abigon and Johnny Reyes*

Our Dear Family and Friends who have joined us this evening to celebrate or contributed in our honor

Our Precious Children who have endured the weekly shlepping to and from Brooklyn every week of their lives and for whom we do everything that we do

and the Entire HPCT-CAE Congregation who have made us feel so welcome and special every single day since we arrived here almost 17 years ago.

Thank you for your generosity. We love you all and look forward to continuing to give back to the community that has given so much to us for many years to come.

Dear Lisa and Mike,

Rabbi Jonathan Sacks, of blessed memory, said, "There is an inner connection between music and the spirit. Words are the language of the mind. Music is the language of the soul. So, when we pray, we do not read; we sing."

You are the music of our congregation, for which we are ever grateful.

Ellen and Maurice Elias

Congratulations to our good friends and neighbors!

Ronni & Toba Potosky

To the entire Weis family

We love you and are so proud of you!

Asher Weinstein*

Cantor Mike & Lisa,
Thank you for bringing song
and ruach to our Shabbat
Services and being an integral part of our Temple
family.

With appreciation,
Lynette & Lenny Seader

Mazel Tov to Cantor Michael Weis, who sends his spirit fully into all that he does, and who renews his service of HaShem and Am Israel through his many vocations. His devotion to his congregation, his colleagues, and his faith renews the face of our Earth.
