Yosef Kagedan

Born and raised in Teaneck, New Jersey, Yosef Kagedan attended Yeshivat Noam for elementary and middle school and Torah Academy of Bergen County (TABCO) for high school. Growing up, he loved being involved in a variety of Jewish youth organizations including NCSY, Bnei Akiva, and HaZamir. Yosef then attended Yeshivat Eretz HaTzvi for his gap year in Israel, where he honed his Jewish learning skills and deep love of Israel. He earned a B.A. in Psychology and Minor in Music from Rutgers University-New Brunswick, and recently returned to the Banks of The Old Raritan to pursue a Master of Social Work degree. Yosef is a longtime member of Kol HaLayla, Rutgers' Jewish acapella group, and was its Music Director from 2019-2020. He feels most connected to Judaism through music, as he is an avid and experienced Chazan and Ba'al Korei. His favorite Jewish topics are Jewish History, Tanach, Jewish Philosophy, and Tefilah.
