SANDCATCHERS

Middle East Music Meets Americana!

SANDCATCHERS is a musical collective fronted by visionary vocalist, composer & oud player Yoshie Fruchter with lap steel whiz Myk Freedman, bassist Michael Bates and drummer Shai Wetzler. The Brooklyn based SANDCATCHERS (Chant Records) shatters conventions of songwriting and performance. Using their signature blend of middle eastern sounds and Americana, the songs are at once deep and lighthearted, sometimes approaching intense subject matter, but doing so with an air of whimsy. SANDCATCHERS is the rare case where this mix carves out a truly unique space in a crowded musical landscape - a band that you can enjoy with your ears and experience with your soul!

Their new album "The Lines" is out now on all streaming and digital platforms and on vinyl.
