Todah Rabah
תודה רבה

Bart and I want to express how grateful we are to all those who reached out to us by visiting, calling, making donations and supplying food. The last few months have been ones of loss of loved ones for us both, starting with Bart's brother's (Joel Weinstein z'l) sudden death and then Debbie's mom, Shirley Goldstein z'l. Reaching out to us during these times by Shul members helped us both to deal with this. We are both so grateful to be members of the HPCT-CAE community. Todah Rabah — Debbie Goldstein and Bart Weinstein

TODAH RABAH

We would like to thank YOU, this wonderful community of HPCT-CAE, for allowing us to serve you as Purim Project Co-Chairs. We are passing the baton to a very capable group of women who will co-chair the Purim Project beginning next year.

Thank you to all the packers and drivers. This year we would especially like to thank: Ira Cohen, Marlene Herman, Diane Hoffman and Linda Schmidt. Special kudos to two helpers ... extraordinaire: Beth Spurr and Nely Amigon. Beth has been designing creative and whimsical labels to decorate our Purim bags, and helps with other fine details, and Nely pays attention to our needs during packing. THANK YOU! — Carol Shapiro and Rochelle Epstein, Purim Project Co-Chairs
